DISCLAIMER: Although every precaution will be taken to prevent damage and theft from occurring to your specimen while in my possession, I cannot make any guarantees. When a frozen specimen is brought in, no judgment can be made as to its condition until it is thawed. Since proper field care is of the utmost importance in determining the quality of the final product, I cannot take responsibility for the mishandling of the specimen up to the point at which it is brought to me. Therefore, leaving your specimen with me is done at your own risk, and I can take no responsibility for the specimen before, during or after the mounting process is completed.
